March Madness!
Mark Sears (below) led Alabama's Sweet 16 victory over North Carolina. Audiences jumped 27% from last year's Gonzaga-UCLA game in the same timeslot, and average viewership for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament's first two weeks grew 4% over last year.

Losing Its Voice
Maybe don't sing it again. Part 3 of the Battles sunk the singing competition to a season low. Season 25's Monday-night episodes are averaging nearly 6 million viewers, a slight decrease from the previous season.

Ask Matt

America's top TV critic Matt Roush answers your burning questions

If NBC had told the producers of the Quantum Leap reboot about its cancellation earlier, they might not have left us hanging as they did with the previous series in 1993. Do you think it's possible that NBC might consider doing what they did for another canceled time-travel show, Timeless, and put together a special finale for the reboot that wraps everything up? Maybe even bringing Scott Bakula back to close out Sam Beckett's fate as well? —Rob R.

MATT ROUSH: Wouldn't that be great? That would certainly take the sting out of the cancellation, and Leap is NBCUniversal's intellectual property to do with as it pleases. But for now, this is just wishful thinking.

When might we hear if The CW's Wild Cards has been renewed? I love this show. It's got mystery, drama, humor and potential romance. A nice escape from the world. —Shelley

MATT ROUSH: I agree, but at press time, still no timetable. Because this series is a coproduction of Canada's CBC Television and The CW, it's unclear who'll make the call and when. Stay hopeful.

I cannot find any information regarding the second season of Fox's riveting series Accused. I thought it was renewed while the first was still airing. —Cindy MATT ROUSH: You're right, but the writers' and actors' strikes set back many shows' production schedules. And with this being an anthology drama with new stories and casts each week, that may have made it particularly difficult to rush back on the air. Look for it next season.

The Sympathizer

A tormented spy lives a double life in post-Vietnam War America

Sundays, 9/8c, HBO COME FOR THE stunt, to marvel at the versatility of Oscar winner Robert Downey Jr. inhabiting multiple extravagant roles, recalling Peter Sellers' tour de force in Dr. Strangelove. Stay to get immersed in the suspenseful saga of an unnamed half-Vietnamese, half-French antihero who sees himself as "a spy, a sleeper, a spook, a man of two faces...cursed to see every issue from both sides."

Known only as the Captain (Hoa Xuande, appealingly boyish), this Communist "sympathizer," secretly working for the North Vietnamese during the Vietnam War, embeds himself as a trusted aide to a delusional South Vietnamese general, whom he reluctantly follows to the U.S. after the fall of Saigon—memorably re-created during a harrowing, explosive evacuation sequence.

His identity as a biracial, bilingual, American-educated double agent makes the Captain "a synthesis of incompatibilities," a duality that becomes even more pronounced when he and his fellow war refugees start new lives in 1970s Los Angeles. Smartly adapted by South Korean filmmaker Park Chan-wook (Oldboy) and Don McKellar from Viet Thanh Nguyen's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel,

Hoa Xuande as the Captain

The Sympathizer is framed as a confession being written, and rewritten, by an imprisoned Captain in what appears to be a Vietnamese reeducation camp. How he gets there is a winding, wild story of deceit, guilt, murder and culture-shock social satire.

Irony flavors each twist of his journey, whether falling for a wry Japanese American woman (Sandra Oh) who declares "the only kind of love I believe in is free love," or being tasked to find the mole in his community, nobody suspecting it's him. The seven-part series' high point arrives midway through, when he's hired as an adviser on an Apocalypse Now-style Vietnam War epic. His secret mission: Make sure the Viet Cong get "some good lines." (In terrific cameos, David Duchovny appears as a Method-acting monster, with John Cho as an Asian actor who dies in every film.)

Downey gives his showiest performance as the movie's temperamental director, triggering the Captain's traumatic memories with his desire for authenticity. He also scores as a manipulative CIA agent, a hawkish politician and a smug, flamboyant professor of Oriental Studies. That they don't entirely steal the show should tell you something about The Sympathizer's cumulative power. ★★★★★

Mary & George

Fridays, 9/8c, Starz

PART LADY MACBETH, part Mommie Dearest, Julianne Moore is a titian-haired terror as Mary Villiers, the 17th century Countess of Buckingham. The not-so-noblewoman of questionable lineage schemes and murders her way into the debauched court of Britain's lusty King James I by pimping her handsome son George (petulant Nicholas Galitzine) in a profane and raunchy costume drama notable for its shedding of costumes.

Mary & George is lurid fun, up to a point, as a kitschy hybrid of historical drama and R-rated primetime soap. If it drags in the grim final chapters, when post-Elizabethan politics begin to upstage the passion and the pulchritude, well, this sort of medieval melodrama rarely ends happily. Just ask King Arthur.

As the sybaritic and less mythical James, Scottish actor Tony Curran rants and ruts furiously, leaving one puzzled about the state of national affairs when all of the monarch's energies seem to be focused on the boudoir. And on gorgeous George, once he and his malicious mother clear the deck of their enemies. I especially enjoyed Nicola Walker, a U.K. TV veteran, sparring with Moore as viper-tongued Lady Hatton, determined to keep her daughter from marrying into their awful family. Here's how she greets Mary during her awkward first visit to court: "Who dressed you? A prostitute?" The answer, obviously, is yes. ★★★☆☆

Franklin

Fridays, Apple TV+

MICHAEL DOUGLAS HAS built a career, reaping a Best Actor Oscar and an Emmy, around his considerable charisma, which makes him an inspired choice to portray the legendary Founding Father and statesman Benjamin Franklin in a lavish if leisurely eight-hour docudrama. "A long life has taught me that diplomacy must never be a siege, but a seduction," he declares to his French hosts as the 70-year-old global celebrity embarks on a mission during the darkest days of the American Revolution in 1776, wooing the monarchy to support the Colonies in their armed rebellion against the British king. (The French royals would face their own revolution more than a decade later, but that's another story.)

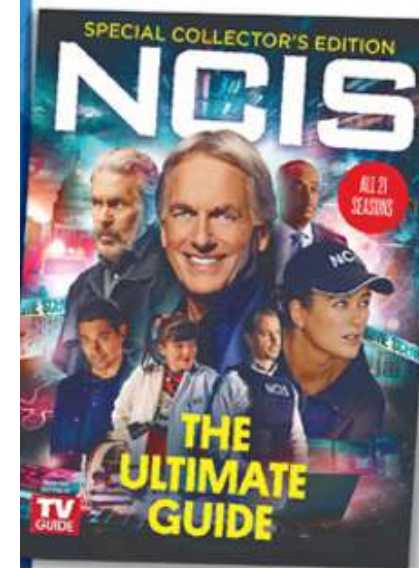

This escapade, which involves spies and an assassination attempt, sprawls over eight years, and the viewer may get lost in a sea of powdered wigs and faces as we witness the sausage of history being made. Initially banned from the Versailles court and even Paris, sequestered in a country estate, Franklin sometimes comes off as the houseguest who'll never leave, threatening to overstay his welcome. His teenage grandson Temple (Noah Jupe), who's led astray more often than Pinocchio, definitely does. But things pick up when the irascibly impatient John Adams (Ray Donovan's Eddie Marsan) arrives. He loathes and envies Franklin's wit and wiles, which ultimately win the day. And the war. ★★★★★

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL

On April 26, Clint Howard will make his debut on The Bold and the Beautiful as Tom, a homeless man Deacon (Sean Kanan) and Finn (Tanner Novlan) encounter while pursuing a mystery. For the veteran performer, adding the credit to his résumé was a welcome change. "This is a surprising turn of events for me," he admits. "I have never been a big soap opera guy, but to be on The Bold and the Beautiful, that's a notch in my gun belt."

Given the fast pace of soaps, Howard was well aware of the challenges he would face. "As a 64-year-old man, I was certainly prepared for lots of dialogue," he explains. "I figured I was up to it. That's one thing my dad taught me: No matter what, they're hiring a professional to do a professional's job, and what I owe them is my best effort."

Clint and brother Ron

Howard, who hails from a showbiz family, discovered he had fans of his work on set. "That's really hard to avoid, having been in the business a long time," he notes. "There were people that worked with me in the past and several people that came up and said they [acted] with my mom

[Jean] and my dad [Rance], and that's so wonderful. It gives me a chance to have conversations with them that are heartfelt and honest. The Howard family, we've been around a long time. My dad broke into the business in the early '50s and, of course, Ron came along and he started in 1957 or '58, and we've got a few years under our belt."

Though his appearance is brief, Howard would enjoy reprising the role of Tom. "Oh, I would love it," he declares. "I love the people and the pace. When an actor first hears about doing a soap, you go, 'It's going to be a lot of dialogue, and some of the dialogue is going to be stilted,' but I shed all that. I've done almost everything in the world of entertainment. To do a soap opera is something I would enjoy, and I would love to do more."

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Days of Our Lives favorite Melissa Reeves is back taping as Jennifer Horton, the role she first played in 1985, and she'll be part of the on-air memorial for late Days legend Bill Hayes, who played Doug Williams. "I heard about Bill, which was just devastating for all of us, and was like, 'I wonder if they're going to do tribute shows,'" Reeves recalls. She spoke with longtime costar Matthew Ashford (Jack Deveraux), who gauged her interest in returning. "Matt said, 'Would you ever think about going back?' And I said, 'Matt, I think about Days all the time. I grew up there. It always has a place in my heart.'"

Reeves, who has spent the past few years

Reeves as Jennifer

renovating a ranch in Tennessee with husband Scott (Nashville), realized she needed to prepare. "I was laughing to Scott, 'Honey, I have to put on some high-heeled shoes and walk around this house and get my calf muscles used to it again,'" she says, chuckling. "I have not worn high heels in so many years. On the farm, I wear muck boots all day."

ON THE HUNT!

This Is Us* star Justin Hartley goes from family man to survivalist in the new action-packed series

BY JIM HALTERMAN

WAS JUSTIN HARTLEY nervous about the launch of his new drama series, Tracker, which had the honor of premiering in this year's coveted post-Super Bowl timeslot? According to the actor formerly known as Kevin Pearson on ABC's This Is Us, not until the intense 49ers–Chiefs game went into overtime. "I was like, 'Oh, so we're asking people to tune in [to our show] at 11:15pm?'" he says.

Thanks to what Hartley calls "the power of the Super Bowl, the power of Taylor Swift, the power of the NFL and a really great game," those worries were short-lived, as 18.4 million live viewers stayed up for Tracker's premiere (with multiplatform numbers, that audience has climbed to more than 33 million). Beyond that solid debut, episodes in the drama's regular timeslot averaged a strong 7.2 million live viewers.

Hartley and This Is Us sibs Chrissy Metz and Sterling K. Brown

"All of that is a testament to how good of a show we're putting out, and it's just getting better," the actor, who is also an executive producer, proudly tells TV GUIDE MAGAZINE while shooting in Vancouver. "Sometimes the entertainment factor of what we do gets lost when you pay attention to numbers. The ratings for me at this point show we are entertaining a large group of people, which I love, and that's why we're doing it."

On the surface, Tracker—which is based on Jeffery Deaver's best-selling novel The Never Game—resembles many of CBS's successful procedurals, with the format of noble heroes solving mysteries and saving lives. In this case, it's a singular savior: stoic professional tracker Colter Shaw (Hartley), who travels across the U.S. collecting cash rewards while helping citizens locate missing persons. But the familiar case-of-the-week element is where the similarities to shows like NCIS or FBI end.

Colter "is not a cop doing a job," says Reid. "He's this guy doing this thing for his own personal reasons."

"I remember the initial pitch to the studio," says executive producer-director Ken Olin, who worked with Hartley on This Is Us and brought him Deaver's book as their next project. "Colter's not encumbered by the same restrictions that all these procedurals have, where there's a base they live out of and they have to adhere to the law." Instead, the independent contractor is his own boss, traveling to cities like St. Louis and Chicago in an Airstream trailer. "There's a throwback element, like The Rockford Files, with this guy going into a new world" weekly, says executive producer Elwood Reid. (Olin cites Then Came Bronson and The Fugitive as series in the same vein of Tracker.) "This was more of a character redress of a procedural because so much of it comes from this character, what he does and the cases he takes."

While Hartley says Colter is "all heart" when on the job, he keeps an emotional distance. That's in part due to his painful family drama, which viewers got a taste of in the pilot episode: Colter's tracker-teaching father, Ashton (Lee Tergesen), ended up dead from a cliff fall—with Colter's older brother, Russell (Matthew Nelson-Mahood), seemingly responsible. The mystery surrounding that event begins to accelerate with the May 5 episode and continues through the May 19 season finale, shaking up the recluse. "Colter finds out some stuff that does rattle him," teases Hartley, careful not to reveal too much. "If it happened to me, I wouldn't be able to sleep thinking that certain people in my life lied to me or misled me intentionally. It changes his family dynamic quite a bit."

As his past disrupts his present, there's opportunity for the lone wolf to lean on the team who remotely help him on cases, like brainy Chicago-based techie Bobby Exley (Eric Graise) and caring married couple Teddi (Robin Weigert) and Velma (Abby McEnany), who field Colter's assignments and provide vital intel from Denver. Then there's brash traveling lawyer Reenie Greene (Fiona Rene), who shares a slowly simmering spark with Colter. In the April 28 episode, Reenie has a personal connection to his missing-children case in Oregon and comes in to help. "They spend a lot of that episode together,

Greene on the case

Taking down the bad guys not romantically, but you see there is a relationship," says Reid, adding, "It's the biggest story we've ever done."

With Tracker already renewed for Season 2, Hartley is "excited about the endless possibilities and the characters that we can bring in." Could that include another appearance from wife Sofia Pernas, who played fellow reward seeker and rival Billie Matalon in Episode 6? Leave it to TV's newest detective: "I know a guy, if we can get her!"

Hartley and Pernas

HARTLEY'S GREATEST HITS

From soaps to super-heroes, here are some of the actor's notable roles

Passions (2002–06)

On the campy NBC daytime show, Nicholas Foxworth Crane had a "heart of gold" but no shirt. "They'd have me with no shirt walking around a hospital for three weeks. It was ridiculous, but I loved it," says Hartley.

Smallville (2006–11)

As Oliver Queen (aka Green Arrow) on the CW drama, Hartley "learned how to work really long hours and through nights, a lot of stunt work and how to ride a motorcycle."

Revenge (2013–14)

"I love that he was given up for adoption for reasons [he thought he knew], and the truth was totally different," says Hartley of Patrick Osbourne, the long-lost son of Victoria Grayson (Madeleine Stowe) on ABC's drama.

Mistresses (2014–16)

Plastic surgeon Scott Trosman arrived on the ABC series to woo Josslyn Carver (Jes Macallan) with a particular fetish. "He noticed that women liked shoes, and he liked women, and so...he would buy one high heel in every size."

The Young and the Restless (2014–16)

Adam Newman came with bonuses, such as working "with the great Eric Braeden [who plays Victor Newman] three or four times a week."

The Young and the Restless

▶ Thomas Lennon gets his licks in when returning for the May 8 Season 2 finale as snarky Seattle cop Patrick Shaw, who tries to help beagle-toting brother Frank (Joel McHale) bust an animal-smuggling ring. “You couldn’t wish for a better scene partner,” Lennon raves...of the dog. “This guy has impeccable timing.”

ANIMAL HOUSE

Which one’s the diva? The cast of Fox’s Animal Control tells us what it’s like working with furry and feathered guest stars BY DAMIAN HOLBROOK

▶ When it came to sharing the bill with this feathered Season 1 guest star, Ravi Patel (aka Amit) cries fowl. “The goose seemed to love being held by me but was constantly complaining about the snacks on set and the affordable housing crisis in California,” the actor teases.

▶ Llama mama drama! In Season 1, Grace Palmer’s Victoria helped with a vet’s very pregnant patient. “I have a newfound appreciation for llamas and alpacas,” the actress relates. “And I don’t think anyone noticed Todd was male, even when his character was giving birth!”

▶ In Season 1, the team scared off a hirsute home invader, but cocreator Rob Greenberg jokes that things were way hairier off camera: “The bear would only go in the hot tub if we turned on the jets!” The current season, which has featured more than 19 species, has also brought a miniature horse, a sloth and a giant tortoise.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Mother-daughter duo Lisa Rinna and Delilah Hamlin star in the new Lifetime thriller Mommy Meanest BY ZHANNA SLOR

Hamlin and Rinna in character on set

MOVE OVER, HOUSEWIVES!

There’s some new drama in town, and Lisa Rinna is center stage as Madelyn, the divorced mother of college-bound Mia (Briana Skye, Van Helsing and DC’s Legends of Tomorrow). When the family’s close relationship is threatened by Mia’s burgeoning independence and a new boyfriend, the teenager becomes the target of relentless cyberbullying. Mia’s search to figure out who is behind the threatening, dangerous texts leads her to a horrific discovery: The culprit is none other than her own mom. Inspired by true events and also starring Rinna’s model-actress daughter Delilah Hamlin as Mia’s friend Summer, Mommy Meanest marks the first time Rinna and Hamlin have acted opposite each other onscreen. And according to the proud parent, “she’s a natural.” Rinna tells us more.

What interested you in doing this film, given the subject matter? I was invited to a Lifetime breakfast last year, right when I came off [The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills]. We were talking about what I wanted to do, and I said I would love to play, like, a murderer or somebody really crazy. We started talking and looking at different projects, and then the strike happened. Then they came back to me with this idea. I liked it because this is based on a true story, and this woman is really troubled and quite sick in her head.

What reservations, if any, did you have on being vilified as the mother? Obviously I’m playing a character, but it’s somebody who really did this, for whatever reason. It was interesting to research what would drive somebody to go to those lengths to keep control of their child. But it was also a challenge to not make her over-the-top crazy. She thinks she’s really doing the right thing for her child.

How do you feel about Delilah following in the footsteps of you and your actor husband, Harry Hamlin? I think it’s hilarious, because when the kids [Delilah, 25, and Amelia, 22] were growing up, they were like, “We’re never going to be actors. We don’t want to be actors.” I always thought it was such a shame—Delilah was so funny putting on shows when she was little—so it feels very appropriate and right. You could easily say there’s some bullying that goes on with Housewives. What was your moral compass when you were doing that reality show? Your moral compass is challenged. There’s plenty that’s come out about what goes on behind the scenes, but I think everybody does the best they can, because nobody really expects what is going to happen when you get on a show like that. You really don’t, until you’re in it. What scares you most about social media, as a parent and a celebrity? Everything. There are some very positive things about it, but there are some really negative things that I’ve been part of, my kids have been part of, my husband’s been part of. It’s easy for people to sit behind their computers and say things they would never, ever say to somebody’s face. I think we’re at a tipping point. ■

ORIGINAL DRAMA High times and bloody mob crimes fire up this spinoff of Guy Ritchie's 2020 feature of the same name. With a sensibility similar to that of the Matthew McConaughey film—marijuana labs hidden below posh British estates, bad guys stowed in freezers—the series follows Eddie Horniman (Theo James), second-born son of a duke, who inherits a lot more than a title after his father passes away. In addition to dealing with the fury of his coked-out older brother Freddy (Daniel Ings) over being passed over, Eddie must negotiate with Susie Glass (Kaya Scodelario, above, with James), no-nonsense head of a massive pot-distribution ring that's been secretly operating under the estate for years.

Eddie "wants to extract himself from this business," notes exec producer and creator Ritchie, who cowrote the eight-episode romp. But covering Freddy's massive debt to the wrong kind of people means "striking deals with the same criminal underworld [Eddie's] trying to escape"—until he realizes that dealing with these crooks is "where the fun lies." —Damian Holbrook backdrop of racial tensions and a case of police brutality, this six-episode adaptation of Tom Wolfe's 742-page 1998 opus was a passion project for writer David E. Kelley and director Regina King.

Something old? Something new? Lana (Brooke Shields) finds both in this new movie when she discovers the guy her daughter Emma (Miranda Cosgrove, below left, with Shields) plans to wed in a month is the son of her estranged ex (Benjamin Bratt). Anyone taking bets on how many happily-ever-afters this film might produce? Chad Michael Murray also costars.

"We bonded over the complexity of Charlie," says Kelley, a self-described big Wolfe fan. "He's a character you will both root for and despise all at once. And Jeff totally embraced that notion."

Kelley hopes that Wolfe—who died in 2018 and notoriously disliked the adaptation of his novel The Bonfire of the Vanities—would have welcomed this series, noting that it matches the book's "provocative" ideas, such as how we really measure success when we get only one life. As for the audience, says Kelley, "If we can get people at home facing their own mirrors and asking that same question, that'd be a home run." —Ian Spelling

It's still difficult to reconcile that Dan Wheldon (above)—dynamic two-time Indy 500 champ with a thousand-watt smile—has been gone nearly 13 years, dying in a horrific 2011 crash at Las Vegas Motor Speedway. Perhaps more difficult to reconcile? That his sons Sebastian (15) and Oliver (13) are following in their dad's lead footsteps as talented racers...and that their courageous mom, Susie, permits it. These complicated tales come to vivid life in a doc that, as director-producer Laura Brownson puts it, covers legacy, loss and, ultimately, love.

"I wanted to understand why on earth these boys would want to do the same thing that took their father from them, and what I came to learn was, when they get behind the wheel, they are the closest to their father that they can ever get," Brownson says.

Full of poignancy, the film runs through Susie's struggles, her deep bond with her sons and the intensity that allowed Dan Wheldon to thrive—a feeling that burns inside her boys as well. As four-time Indy-Car champ Dario Franchitti puts it here, "You can't breed tame rabbits from wild ones." —Robert Edelstein

How Disney Built America

SERIES PREMIERE Sunday, April 28, 10/9c, History

ONCE UPON A time, Walt Disney was just a regular American struggling to succeed. He goes from little guy to big cheese (above, circa 1955) with the help of a mouse in this six-part docuseries featuring original dramatic re-creations, expert interviews and archival material. We sketch out each hourlong episode.

THE BIRTH OF MICKEY (April 28) In 1920s Hollywood, a young Walt loses creative control over his first successful cartoon character, Oswald the Lucky Rabbit, to a powerful middleman. Walt and animator Ub Iwerks create Mickey Mouse and make the first synchronized sound animated short, Steamboat Willie. It's a hit. ANIMATION EXPANSION (May 5) At his studio, Walt still faces soaring costs, mounting criticism and tight deadlines. He pushes the limits of technology to create the first full-length animated feature with sound and color, 1937's Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, giving rise to the billion-dollar business of animated films. BUILDING DISNEYLAND (May 12) If you've ever spun around in the teacup ride, you've felt how dizzying it was for Walt to transform 160 acres in booming Southern California into "The Happiest Place on Earth." See the excitement and challenges of devising the park, a 1940s dream that was made real, opening in 1955. MERCHANDISE MADNESS (May 19) Beginning in the 1930s, Kay Kamen turned Disney characters into megastars by licensing their images for products. He created the famous watch with Mickey's hands pointing out the time! WALT DISNEY WORLD AND EPCOT (June 2) In the '60s, Walt tries his hand at urban planning to build a utopian "city of the future," EPCOT (Experimental Prototype Community of Tomorrow), but his untimely death in 1966 leaves Roy Disney to honor his brother's dream. The plan evolves into Florida's Walt Disney World. IMAGINEERING THE FUTURE (June 9) A look at six Disney innovations including thrill rides, Audio-Animatronics (aka theme park robots), cruise ships and fireworks, and how they've helped change family fun. —Kate Hahn

Ugliest House in America

SEASON PREMIERE 9/8c, HGTV

Beauty is in the eye of the deed holder, but some places are just downright wrong. "Every season I'm surprised at how dysfunctional these homes can be and that people live in them and don't tear their hair out," quips host Retta (above), back for a fifth season of abominable abodes.

In each episode, the Parks & Rec scene stealer and designer Alison Victoria tour three properties in need of an update, pick a winner and award the owners a $150,000 makeover. Among this year's stops: Sedalia, Colorado ("with a whopping population of 103," notes Retta), and historic Christiansburg, Virginia. The one we're most excited/scared for is St. Cloud, Minnesota, which delivered an unforgettable undersea-themed atrocity in Season 1. "When it comes to ugly houses," Retta adds, "that is the city that keeps on giving." —Damian Holbrook

Streets of Laredo

9/8c, INSP

We rated this gritty, gripping miniseries—Larry McMurtry's sequel to Lonesome Dove—a 9 out of 10 when it premiered in 1995. Airing tonight, Saturday and Sunday, Streets of Laredo casts James Garner (below) as an older, more world-weary version of Woodrow F. Call (played by Tommy Lee Jones in the original) in 1880s Texas. The lawman has turned bounty hunter, but he may have lost his edge when it comes to nabbing 17-year-old Mexican assassin Joey Garza (Alexis Cruz). The murderers' row of onscreen talent includes Sissy Spacek, Sam Shepard, Ned Beatty and Wes Studi.

HELLO, GORGEOUS!
We're Here
SEASON PREMIERE
9/8c, HBO

The Emmy-winning reality show returns for Season 4 with drag queens Sasha Velour, Priyanka, Jaida

Essence Hall and Latrice Royale visiting small towns across America to teach the locals about the beauty of treating everyone as equals, no matter how different. And to serve some fierce looks while they're at it!

100 Days to Indy
SEASON PREMIERE
9/8c, The CW

Will Josef Newgarden become the first repeat Indianapolis 500 winner since 2002? Watch him prep as Season 2 of the motorsports docuseries follows the brick-laid road to IndyCar racing's biggest event. Top competition includes 2022 winner Marcus Ericsson.

The New York Times Presents:
Broken Horses
10/9c, FX

The pageantry and beauty of the "Sport of Kings" is being undermined by doping and questionable breeding practices, asserts this doc from the makers of Framing Britney Spears. New York Times reporters look at a recent spate of racehorse injuries and deaths.

Agatha Raisin
1am/midnight c, SundanceTV

Another Acorn TV streaming series—here, the English village mystery starring Ashley Jensen, Season 2—makes its way to cable.

The Equalizer

8/7c, CBS

Teenager Dee's (Laya DeLeon Hayes) transgender friend Raya (Avery Sands) is missing, so Dee calls on her mom, vigilante Robyn McCall (Queen Latifah, above), to help. "McCall suspects the disappearance is the work of traffickers, but the threat is much closer to home," says exec producer Joseph C. Wilson. "A rescue mission into a dangerous and dark world reveals a sinister operation that threatens to leave Raya scarred for life." —Kate Hahn

Cold Justice
8/7c, Oxygen

Halloween jack-o'-lanterns grinned outside a South Carolina home in 2015, but the real horror was inside: four people—a middle-aged couple and their mothers—shot and stabbed to death. The true-crime show devotes two episodes to this puzzling case, complete with suspicious neighbors, stolen cash and a bloody footprint.

LOOKING FOR CONNECTION
Branching Out
MOVIE PREMIERE
8/7c, Hallmark Channel

After Amelia (Sarah Drew) is confronted by daughter Ruby about their sparse family tree, the single mom—who conceived through IVF—makes it her mission to track down Ruby's biological father, T.J. (Juan Pablo Di Pace). Who thinks love is in the air?

Critter Fixers,
Country Vets
9/8c, Nat Geo Wild

Good-hearted, good-humored Georgia veterinarians Terrence Ferguson and Vernard Hodges rush to aid a longtime client's large tortoise, whose shell is badly cracked. The docs also wrangle scrappy miniature cows and witness a touching moment between an elderly cockatiel and her owner.

Fire Country

Friday, May 3, 9/8c, CBS

GET READY FOR a “fire prom” when Edgewater’s residents gather at the Firefighters Ball, where smoldering secrets and relationships are set to ignite more drama. While there’s always action—Station 42 may be called to assist in a campaign fire scorching California—the focus in this week’s Fire Country is Three Rock. It seems the camp where inmates can earn their release by fighting fires is in danger of being extinguished. “People have issues with incarcerated inmates in their community without fences,” explains executive producer Tia Napolitano.

As the firefighters trade their uniforms for suits and beautiful gowns, Three Rock’s captain, Eve (Jules Latimer), takes charge, hoping to impress the visiting governor. The inmates (like Max Thieriot’s Bode, above, second from left, with Latimer, center) also attend, to show “these are heroes and good people who can interact with and benefit the community,” says Napolitano. The stakes are especially high for Bode. “It’s helped him be the best version of himself,” and without it, everyone fears what will happen to him, stresses Napolitano. “The fates of Bode and Three Rock are interlinked.”

The other five-alarm cause for concern? Town golden girl Gabriela (Stephanie Arcila) is shocked when her estranged mother, Roberta (Paola Núñez), arrives at the gala. She clocks the love triangle—Gabriela, her finacé Diego (Rafael de la Fuente) and her past love Bode—which “simmers” with the season finale looming, according to the exec producer. Like everyone else, Roberta sees that “you can’t undo the way [Bode and Gabriela] look at each other, even if she’s about to marry someone else.”

Roberta also inflames drama for her ex Manny (Kevin Alejandro) and Bode’s family—revealing tensions between his parents, Vince (Billy Burke) and Sharon (Diane Farr), and Vince’s brother, Luke (Michael Trucco). “We’re going to explode a secret about Luke’s involvement with Three Rock that’s going to spark family tensions,” reveals Napolitano.

Roberta’s arrival invites “the firecracker to the tinder,” she adds. We can’t wait to watch it burn. —Meredith Jacobs

PICK OF THE WEEK!

The Neighborhood

8/7c, CBS

Nobody can keep a secret on this block, especially when it comes to what Marty (Marcel Spears) and Courtney (Skye Townsend) are going to name their baby. Meanwhile, Dave (Max Greenfield) tries to assemble the complicated diaper changing table.

Intervention

8/7c, A&E

Dive into the extreme world of three brothers, all addicts, who may be on the verge of destroying themselves. They grapple here with their drug dependencies, the trauma they experienced in their youth and their relationship with their mother.

Lethally Blonde

SEASON FINALE

10/9c, Investigation Discovery

The true crime series’ last tale of the season opens in 1992, when 20-year-old aspiring model and newlywed mom Kimberly Pandelios meets a photographer for an outdoor shoot in California’s Angeles National Forest. Her remains were found a year later.

MURDER IN NEW YORK?

The Interrogation Tapes: A Special Edition of 20/20

10/9c, ABC

Was Vincent Viafore’s 2015 kayaking death on New York’s Hudson River an accident—or something more sinister? Only his fiancée knows.

Anne Rice’s Mayfair Witches

3:30am/2:30c, AMC

Hex and violence reign in this eerie series, which begins an encore run with surgeon Rowan Fielding (Alexandra Daddario, below) discovering the truth about her family.

TUESDAY, APRIL 30

The Rookie

9/8c, ABC

For the LAPD’s newest moms, detectives Nyla Harper (Mekia Cox) and Angela Lopez (Alyssa Diaz, below), finding good help—beyond their respective husbands, James Murray (Arjay Smith) and Wesley Evers (Shawn Ashmore)—is harder than tracking a crafty fugitive. So while the squad mobilizes to locate two missing girls, the women are also launching their own investigation—for potential nannies. “It’s like life imitating art and imitating life,” admits Diaz, who, like Cox, is a new mother whose pregnancy was written into the show. “Mekia helped me find a nanny, so the fact that our characters are doing it too, it’s like, this is so crazy. I think Alexi [Hawley, the showrunner] should write that we all win the lottery because everything he writes tends to happen!” —Damian Holbrook

Police 24/7 Hostage Rescue

SERIES PREMIERES

8/7c and 9/8c, The CW

Back-to-back premieres of heart-pounding, real-life series are sure to get the blood pumping. First up, on Police 24/7, a look into cops across the country. Then Hostage Rescue tells the stories of hostages and those who worked tirelessly to save them.

A MIRACLE WORKER!

The Good Doctor

10/9c, ABC

Can a man (Guillermo Díaz) who believes he is Jesus Christ give his informed consent to donate an organ to a total stranger? That’s the ethical question at hand for Dr. Shaun Murphy (Freddie Highmore), whose patient is in dire need of a kidney transplant.

Dance Moms: The Reunion

8/7c, Lifetime

There's no denying the legacy Abby Lee Miller has left the dance world as a talented choreographer and larger-than-life TV personality, but her meaner-than-mean, win-at-all-costs attitude, plus complications from legal issues and warring mamas, ultimately led her to ruin. Lifetime cameras captured all the drama during Dance Moms' eight-season run, which ended in 2019.

for this two-hour special along with moms, Kelly Hyland, Jill Vertes, Kira Hilliker, Jessalynn Siwa and Christy Lukasiak. (Miller wasn't invited, and alum Maddie Ziegler was noticeably absent.) Looking back on the most memorable moments of the series means dealing with the good, the bad and the very, very ugly. They'll face the aftermath of the "hurtful things" Abby said, according to Paige. But thankfully, Kendall says, the girls still share "a bond like no other." Chloé concludes, "It was healing to look back on that chapter together." —Barb Oates

Supermarket Stakeout

SEASON PREMIERE
9/8c, Food Network

We are parked and prepped for the return of Chopped judge Alex Guarnaschelli, who again pits chefs against one another in cook-offs that consist of ingredients they can snag from shoppers leaving a grocery store. Also on Alex's menu: a four-week tournament with past judges.

Chicago P.D.

10/9c, NBC

A young girl seeks help from the police, and it turns out she's related to someone from a missing-persons case that new Intelligence detective Jo Petrovic (Bojana Novakovic, Instinct) was working on. And who's there to help? Upton (Tracy Spiridakos), of course, who becomes consumed with the girl's connection to a decades-old case.

Movie Picks

Five ladies get their tales told in this mini-thon, which starts with suspense: Gene Tierney plays the title role in 1944 noir Laura, about an ad exec whose murder consumes Dana Andrews' detective. Alfred Hitchcock's only Best Picture winner, 1940's Rebecca (9:45/8:45c), is next. Then, in Hitchcock's 1964 psychological thriller Marnie (12:15am/11:15c), a publisher (Sean Connery) tries to help the traumatized woman (Tippi Hedren, right, with Connery) he's recently married. —Robert Edelstein

The good news: Operator Maddie (Jennifer Love Hewitt) and firefighter Chimney's (Kenneth Choi) wedding day is here! The bad news: The groom isn't, and it's up to the 118 to find him before the blessed event becomes their next disaster.

Law & Order

8/7c, NBC

On an earlier crossover episode with Law & Order: SVU, viewers learned that hard-working Lt. Kate Dixon (Carmyn Manheim, below) has a deaf son named Patrick, and now we finally meet him. Manheim, a former American Sign Language interpreter, was thrilled to use her skills onscreen, and she shows them off not only with James Caverly (Only Murders in the Building), the deaf actor who plays her son, but also with Alona Jane Robbins, who plays Alex, the young deaf daughter of a doorman charged with killing a wealthy real estate investor in this dramatic hour. (It's the 499th episode; on May 9, the NBC series celebrates 500.)

Patrick is Alex's teacher and is understandably "concerned about the family he believes are wonderful people," Manheim says. But new DA Nicholas Baxter (Tony Goldwyn) knows the victim's powerful father socially. "Kate is compassionate about how her son views the case," Manheim explains, "but she uncovers some information that could throw it in disarray." The emotional situation sees Kate torn. "Dixon grew up in a family of cops, and she plays by the book," the actress says. "Still, sometimes the law can't be black or white, and she's faced with a tough dilemma." —Ileane Rudolph

Well, excuse us for highly anticipating these early films from the off-kilter comic! The slate starts with his 1982 noirish Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid, in which Martin's private eye (right) interacts with Humphrey Bogart, Cary Grant and Bette Davis. Then, Martin and Michael Caine are grifters working the con of a lifetime in 1988's Dirty Rotten Scoundrels (10/9c) before he shows his warmer side in 1991 rom-com remake Father of the Bride (midnight/11c) and his musical chops in 1981's Pennies from Heaven (2am/1 c).

Anne Rice’s Interview With the Vampire

SEASON PREMIERE Sunday, May 12, 9/8c, AMC

ANNE RICE’S ICONIC bloodsuckers trade the French Quarter for a French connection as AMC’s gorgeously rendered adaptation rises for its second feeding. In 2022’s first-season finale, centuries-old vampire Lestat (Sam Reid, above) was brutally undone by undead lover Louis (Jacob Anderson) and their “adopted” daughter Claudia (Bailey Bass, now replaced by Delainey Hayles) during a gory 1940 Mardi Gras bash. The tale continues via the modern-day interview between Louis and journalist Daniel Molloy (Eric Bogosian), only now, they’re joined by Louis’ current paramour, Armand (Assad Zaman), who seems to have a vested interest in steering the narrative of Louis and Claudia’s exploits after fleeing New Orleans.

“We start the first episode of Season 2 [with them] in war-torn Europe searching for vampires,” previews executive producer Mark Johnson, the architect of AMC’s Immortal Universe of Vampire and May-fair Witches. And boy, do they find some!

Shortly after arriving in a post–World War II Paris, the duo fall in with the Théâtre des Vampires, a baroque coven of bloodsucking actors headed by Armand and the troupe’s sinister leading man, Santiago (Ben Daniels of the series version of The Exorcist). While Claudia “finds her home,” Johnson says, among these performers who have tricked audiences into thinking their onstage savagery is all an act, the EP hints that Louis will learn just what he is capable of. Especially given that memories of Lestat—who played a significant role in the theater’s history—are a haunting reminder of his own killer instincts. “It is an origin story,” Johnson explains. “Season 1 is pretty much a pure love story between Lestat and Louis, and then the introduction of a daughter. This is much more an origin story about a mature Louis.”

As anyone who has read the book knows, death does not take a holiday during this portion of Rice’s 1976 bestseller, but the trials Louis and Claudia face are not all in vein, er, vain. “There are multiple love stories within [this season],” continues Johnson. “It’s much grander, much more Dickensian.” So please, AMC, may we have some more? —Damian Holbrook

Daytime Pick

Just-married new parents Mandy (Emily Osment) and Georgie (Montana Jordan) are getting their own spinoff this fall. Here's their meet-cute from 2022.

MATT'S PICK

With All Creatures Great and Small between seasons, here's a lovely reminder that bonding with nature's most vulnerable animals can change lives and rekindle love. That's what happened when Billy Mail, broodingly retired by the sea in Scotland's scenic Shetland islands, encounters a wee "bag of bones" otter he names Molly, nurturing her back to health. "It's like she showed me how to be a kid again: that fascination, that joy that

THE COMPETITION HEATS UP!
The Voice
 8/7c, NBC

Season 25's playoffs have officially come to a close, which means the singing battle's live shows—and the final six episodes—kick off tonight. Which of the 12 performers will impress the audience enough to move forward?

Bob ♥ Abishola
SERIES FINALE
 8:30/7:30c, CBS

They've come a long way from compression sock kingpin and his Nigerian cardiac nurse! The title couple (Billy Gardell and Folake Olowofeyeku), if friends and family bid farewell for good with this episode set seven years in the future.

Mud Madness
 9/8c, Discovery

Mud, money and mayhem! Each week, thrill seekers race UTVs ("utility task vehicles," which look like golf carts on steroids) through gooey courses for prize money. Pursuing big bucks tonight: rivals at the Greasy Bend Off-Road Park in Arkansas. Muckle up!

Next Baking Master: Paris
SERIES PREMIERE
 9/8c, Food Network

In France, hosts Stephanie Boswell and Ludo Lefebvre say bonjour to 10 U.S. bakers for this new competition. It begins with a dessert challenge and a cook-off to create the creamiest, dreamiest cake.

we somehow seem to allow ourselves to lose as we get older," Billy reflects, taking delight in Molly's antics. He even builds a small house for Molly (equipped with a camera and Wi-Fi) rather than finish renovating his own.

Their poignant relationship, captured in director Charlie Hamilton James' glorious photography, is matched only by wife Susan's affection for her revitalized husband. As she says: "Give me a man who loves and cares any day over one who doesn't notice." —Matt Roush

Chicago Fire

9/8c, NBC

"A real shock in the firehouse" propels tonight's episode, says Daniel Kyri (below), who plays endearing firefighter Darren Ritter on the first-responder drama. Not only does a truck go missing from 51, but Lt. Kelly Severide (Taylor Kinney) is nowhere to be found. "His cellphone has been left behind on a table, which is so completely out of character that everyone goes on high alert," Kyri says. Led by Severide's badass wife, Lt. Stella Kidd (Miranda Rae Mayo), the team springs into action.

During the search, Ritter's secret relationship intrudes after police officer Dwayne Monroe (Samuel B. Jackson) is called in to assist. "Ritter's worlds collide," Kyri says. "With Officer Monroe showing up physically at the firehouse, it becomes more difficult for them to hide that connection." Ritter may be openly gay, but as viewers know, a firefighter dating a cop, now that's a scandal.

As for the missing Severide: "He's in some very high-stakes situations," Kyri notes. "As he tries to make his way home, things get very dangerous!" —Ileane Rudolph

Thanks to BetterWOMAN, I'm winning the battle for Bladder Control

Frequent nighttime trips to the bathroom, embarrassing leaks and the inconvenience of constantly searching for rest rooms in public—for years, I struggled with bladder control problems. After trying expensive medications with horrible side effects, ineffective exercises and uncomfortable liners and pads, I was ready to resign myself to a life of bladder leaks, isolation and depression. But then I tried BetterWOMAN®.

When I first saw the ad for BetterWOMAN, I was skeptical. So many products claim they can set you free from leaks, frequency and worry, only to deliver disappointment. When I finally tried BetterWOMAN, I found that after 2–3 months it actually works! It changed my life. Even my friends have noticed that I'm a new person. And because it's all natural, I can enjoy the results without the worry of dangerous side effects. Thanks to BetterWOMAN, I finally fought bladder control problems and I won!

ALL NATURAL CLINICALLY-TESTED HERBAL SUPPLEMENT

Next Level Chef

SEASON FINALE
8/7c, Fox

Time management will be the key ingredient for a winning performance as the final three chefs get 90 minutes—and no countdown warnings!—to prepare an appetizer and two entrées worthy of the Next Level title.

Hudson & Rex

8/7c, UPtv

Cops and slobbers! This policeman + his dog procedural from Canada wraps up Season 5 with the title twosome going after a ring of car thieves.

Farmer Wants a Wife

SEASON FINALE
9/8c, Fox

Host Jennifer Nettles (above) may have some new country-song inspirations after to-night, as this season's lonely but lovable farmers decide which of their final two ladies have stolen their hearts... and which also-rans are in for heartbreak.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS
So Help Me Todd
9/8c, CBS

Turns out investigator Lyle's (Tristen J. Winger) girlfriend Alex (Vinessa Antoine) is secretly an FBI agent—and when Todd (Skylar Astin) finds out, he's prepared to help her uncover who at the firm is breaking the law. As for mom Margaret (Marcia Gay Harden)? A new case could help Crest, Wright & Folding's financial situation.

Jesse Stone

11am/10c and 7:20/6:20c, HDNet Movies

In 2005, five years before Tom Selleck introduced Blue Bloods' iconic police commissioner Frank Reagan, the actor's fans flocked to CBS to watch him play Jesse Stone, police chief of a crime-ridden coastal New England town named Paradise. Stone Cold was the first of what would become nine TV movies based on Robert B. Parker's beloved novels. "I relate to both guys," Selleck told TV GUIDE MAGAZINE in 2015, the year the final film premiered on the Hallmark Channel. "They're both flawed, but Jesse is damaged."

For an extensive introduction, catch this daytime marathon of the franchise's first five titles. (They repeat immediately afterward.) Stone Cold kicks things off at 11am/10c, with the lawman on a mission to catch thrill killers whose victims include two of his friends. After that, it's 2006's Night Passage (12:40/11:40am c) and, from the same year, Death in Paradise (2:20/1:20c), 2007's Sea Change (4/3c; it costarred Kathy Baker, above, with Selleck) and 2009's Thin Ice (5:40/4:40c). —Ileane Rudolph

Hamlet

9/8c, PBS (check local listings at pbs.org)

Under its "Broadway's Best" umbrella, Great Performances airs New York City's 2023 Shakespeare in the Park performance of the Bard's great drama, setting the tale of family and betrayal in a desolate modern-day world. Ato Blankson-Wood takes the title role, with Lorraine Toussaint (The Equalizer) as Gertrude.

The Carol Burnett Show

11/10c, MeTV

"That gown is gorgeous." "Thank you, I saw it in a window and I just couldn't resist it." It's 1976's classic Went With the Wind episode! Carol Burnett gets the laugh every time as stately Starlett O'Hara, descending the staircase in a dress hastily assembled from velvet drapes.

S.W.A.T.

8/7c, CBS

In the series' second-to-last episode, the team confronts eco-terrorists who've kidnapped the teen son (Ricardo Hurtado) of an energy company exec. And, devastatingly, team leader Hondo (Shemar Moore, above) revisits old territory. "In a scene reminiscent of the pilot, he shoots a young Black man in a South L.A. neighborhood," says executive producer Andrew Dettmann. A ruling declares the shooting justified, but Hondo's outraged community calls him "more blue than Black." Facing hostility and resentment, "Hondo questions whether his 25-year effort to bridge the gap between his community and the LAPD has been in vain," Dettmann adds. "He heads into the finale at a crossroads: Follow Deacon's [Jay Harrington] lead and hang it up? Or dig down and rally a new team?" —Kate Hahn

Answers to puzzle of April 1

AARON SPELLING PRODS/EVERETT COLLECTION

BY YASMIN BOLAND

HOROSCOPE

TAURUS (April 20–May 20) The dust of drama starts to settle down a bit. This isn't an invitation to go back to your old ways, though. Everything is likely to look a bit different now, including you!

GEMINI (May 21–June 20) You can expect recent confusion regarding a friendship or community situation to begin to clear up. Soon, you're going to be in a massive growth phase and not everyone can come along for the ride. Sad but true. Not everything can go back to the way it was before.

CANCER (June 21–July 22) Professional or life-direction hiccups begin to subside. Those hiccups were enough to have you questioning your ambitions and what you thought you wanted. There's a reason it's called the path less traveled. You're invited to take the path you thought you wouldn't.

LEO (July 23–Aug. 22) Now that the sun, your guiding star, is at the very top of your horoscope, it's your time to shine at work. Step up to being the natural leader you were born to be. Also, don't be afraid of bucking convention. Do what you want to do, not what others want.

VIRGO (Aug. 23–Sept. 22) Love and money are often intertwined. As much as you try to separate them, right now they are two sides of the same coin. It's time you make some choices that empower you even if it seems a little selfish. You can have it all provided you know what you want.

Dwayne Johnson
5/2/1972

LIBRA (Sept. 23–Oct. 22) When it comes to the daily grind, the pace has been nothing short of punishing. With little fuel left in your tank, the finish line is near. Do continue to put some of your needs first as you let go of bad habits. So far, you've had to do what gets you through.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23–Nov. 21) Romance is looking pretty steamy for you right now. You could get lost in the moment. Whether that moment is something that could change things for the better, or leave you wondering, there is only one way to find out. There is no reward without risk, so risk it!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22–Dec. 21) Life and love are about to get so much better for you that you can almost feel it. That being said, though, you're not quite there yet. You still have work to do, so you better focus on that for now. Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today.

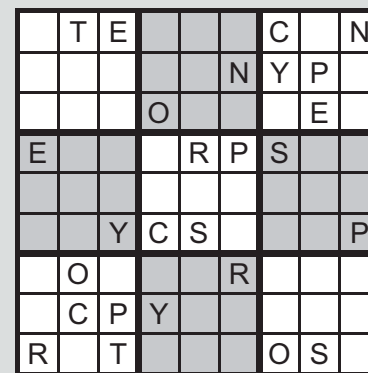

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22–Jan. 19) Life at home is about to get back to some kind of version of smooth sailing. You'll be glad for that after a period of confusion and miscommunication. Now that things are back to regular programming, relax a little. There is work yet to be done, but not right now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20–Feb. 18) Some tough lessons about cash have been dished out to you recently. Chances are, you're feeling confused about what to do next. If that's the case, don't do anything now. As they say, if in doubt, don't. Sometimes the best thing to do is absolutely nothing.

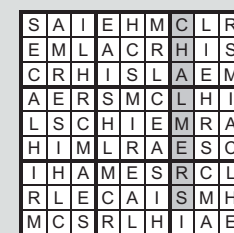

PISCES (Feb. 19–March 20) Be gentle with yourself as your energy is likely to be lower than usual. Rather than pushing for progress, use what you have to allow creativity to rise to the surface. Your imagination is where the magic happens. Dream the impossible dream and then get to work.

ARIES (March 21–April 19) Recent confusion involving what you want will begin to dissipate. Now that Mercury is back on track in your sign, anything that has been moving frustratingly slow will garner speed. Second chances are now possible. It's all right if you choose to change your mind now.

SUDOKU

The actress who plays the lead in Elsbeth appears in this issue's puzzle at left. It has the letters CENOPRST and Y.

LAST ISSUE'S SOLUTION

Cheers to Loot's priceless star, Maya Rudolph. As an heiress trying to better the world with a staff of misfits on Apple TV+'s gem, the SNL vet delivers Emmy-worthy work in both the drama and comedy categories.

Cheers to Elsbeth for keeping killer company. Not only is CBS's The Good Wife spinoff a fitting showcase of effervescent star Carrie Preston, but her kooky attorney has also been hanging with guest stars of equal awesomeness, including Jesse Tyler Ferguson (Modern Family), Jane Krakowski (30 Rock, left, with Preston) and the iconic Linda Lavin. We do not object!

Cheers to The Bold and the Beautiful for knowing you can't keep a bad girl down. Despite being "fatally" stabbed in February, Kimberlin Brown's Sheila refuses to die. It was just revealed she pulled a fast one using a look-alike and will continue her reign as daytime's worst.

Cheers to Fallout for being such a blast. Prime Video's big-budget adaptation of the gonzo video game about a young woman (Ella Purnell, below) trekking across a nuclear-devastated wasteland is more captivating and clever than anything starring Walton Goggins as a noseless mutant cowboy should be. But watch out for the monster fish!

Jeers to 9-1-1 for selling Buck (Oliver Stark, left) short. Now that the LAFD hottie has come out as bisexual on the ABC drama, he deserves someone who sets off more sparks than beau Tommy (Lou Ferrigno Jr.).

Jeers to "fake" casting. The usually engaging Netflix competition The Circle, which challenges sequestered players to create alliances with one another through online chats, has added an artificial intelligence chatbot named Max to the sixth season's cast. Because the only thing worse than being catfished is seeing real humans lose out to an overpaid Alexa.

CHEERS

JEERS

BY DAMIAN HOLBROOK

@damianholbrook

Jeers to Grey's Anatomy

for causing us some serious hypertension. Six years after leaving the show, Jessica Capshaw (right) returned as Dr. Arizona Robbins for ABC's April 4 episode, yet she failed to drop a single mention of former wife Callie (Sara Ramirez) or their daughter. We waited the entire hour and nothing! This is basically TV-medical malpractice.
